Arrest of ISI Agents

669. SHRI DINA NATH MISHRA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) how many ISI personnel have been arrested in the year 1999 in our country;

(b) what is the state-wise number of ISI agents arrested during the same period; and

(c) when does Government propose to table the white paper on ISI on the floor of the House as promised?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) and (b) Central Government does not maintain information in this regard.

(c) Preparation of White Paper is under consideration of the Government.

Naxalism in States

670. SHRI ANANTA SETHI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the States where naxalite activities are on the increase;

(b) the number of naxalite violence taken place in each of those States during the last three years, year-wise and date-wise;

(c) the steps taken to curb naxalite violence; and

(d) the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) Andhra Pradesh, Bihar and Madhya Pradesh have been witnessing some increase in left extremist activities.

(b) As per available information, the details of naxalite violence during the last three years in these State are as under:

State	1997	1998	1999
Andhra Pradesh	863(234)	736(205)	602(151)
Bihar	470(325)	373(206)	481(378)
Madhya Pradesh	102(14)	179(59)	95(47)

Figures in brackets indicate deaths.

(c) and (d) The Central Government has been taking effective initiative in helping the concerned States to tide over the situation. In addition to constant review of all problem areas at the high level Coordination Centre under the Chairmanship of union Home Secretary, the Central Government has been sharing with the States intelligence inputs and extending possible help of Para Military Forces from time to time. 50% of the Security Related Expenditure of the States on account of left extremism violence has been met by the Centre with effect from 1.4.96. The Integrated Action Plans, received from some of the States, have also been forwarded by this Ministry to the Planning Commission for favourable consideration.

Raid of Premises of Delhi Police Official by CBI

671. SHRI AMAR SINGH: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the C.B.I, has recently raided the premises of high official of Delhi Police and if so, what are the details of the disproportionate assets detected as a result thereof;

(b) whether the officer has since been suspended and if not, the reasons therefor; and

(c) what are the names of Delhi Police Officials who have been identified by the Central Vigilance Commission for corruption cases and the action so far taken against each?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. However, the investigation of the case is at a preliminary stage only and the investigation agency is unable at present to assess whether the assets acquired by the officer concerned are disproportionate to the known sources of his and his family's income. It was not in these circumstances considered appropriate to place the officer under suspension.

(c) The names of the police officials in whose case the Central Vigilance Commission have recommended disciplinary action/ prosecution are indicated in the attached statement, see below whereas the proceedings are at various stages of completion in respect of 7 of these officials, the action taken against the remaining 7 officials is as follows: